

Gobierno del Perú

PROGRESO PARA TODOS

INTERNATIONAL PRESS CENTER

The International Press Center (IPC) of the Third ASPA Summit will be located at the National Library of Peru (Biblioteca Nacional del Perú) at Av. De la Poesía 160, San Borja (Between Javier Prado and Aviación Avenues)

The IPC will open from September 29, 2012 on the following schedule (local time):

Saturday, September 29	from 18.00 to 22.00 Hrs.
Sunday, September 30	from 09.00 to 20.00 Hrs.
Monday, October 1	from 07.00 to 23.59 Hrs.
Tuesday, October 2	from 07.00 to 23.59 Hrs.

Access for journalists will take place by the main entrance of the National Library of Peru. Only media representatives will be allowed into the IPC carrying their identification badges. The International Press Center will only be used for covering activities carried out under the Third ASPA Summit program.

Services

The International Press Center will provide the following services:

1. One lounge for journalists with 70 computer equipment units.
2. Three lounges with 100 positions for portable computer equipment.
3. One editing workstation for media use.
4. 60 headphones to listen to the interpretation of the official signal from the Ministry of Culture, distributed in the following way: 20 in Spanish, 20 in English and 20 in Arab.
5. Three free TV sets for the TV channels, equipped with armchairs, table and a Summit banner.
6. Two conference rooms with light and sound equipment.
7. Two rooms with 60 connection points for audio and video in Spanish, English, Arab and original sound or ground, where the press may connect and receive the signal from official events taking place at the Ministry of Culture (15 in Spanish, 15 in English, 15 in Arab and 15 in original sound or ground).
8. Closed circuit services.
9. Direct official signal and satellite transmission services of the Summit official acts.
10. Satellite office services (TV Booking). Fees will be covered by each user.
11. Wireless internet services (Wi-Fi).

12. Consecutive interpreting in Spanish and English during the press conferences.
13. Telephone area.
14. Security office.
15. Medical care on a permanent basis.
16. A banner with the Summit logo at the IPC entrance door so that journalists will be able to make live transmission using this banner as background.
17. Coffee bar and restaurant.
18. Photocopier and printer equipment.
19. Tourist and travel information unit.
20. Journalists will be informed of the final documents approved in the meetings. This documentation, photographs of interest activities, communications and declarations will be available at the website of the Peruvian Ministry of Foreign Affairs: nuevoportal.rree.gob.pe

---

Gobierno del Perú
PROGRESO PARA TODOS